

S VOCABULARY AND LISTENING • School

I can talk about timetables.

- Mark Excuse me, is this the science lab?
- Jenny Erm, no, there aren't any science labs in this block. You're the new boy, right? We haven't got science this morning.
- Mark Oh. What have we got now? I haven't got my timetable.
- Susan Here, take this. I've got a spare copy.
- Mark Thanks. Ah, OK. We've got maths now.
- Jenny Yeah. Who have we got for maths this year?
- Susan Mr Waldron. That means a lot of homework and tests. And there's a new history teacher, look.
- Mark How many teachers are there here?
- Jenny I don't know. A lot. There are a thousand students here.
- Mark A thousand and one, including me. Mmm – double history on Friday afternoon. That's tough.
- Susan Yes. Welcome to our world!

*lab (laboratory) = a special room in school where you learn science

Remember!

a thousand = 1,000
a thousand and one = 1,001

- 1 1.03 Read and listen to the dialogue. Then complete the table with the words in blue in the dialogue. Add more words to the table.

Subjects	Other words
science	lab

- 3 USE IT! Talk about your timetable using the prepositions of time.

I've got biology at 9:45 on Tuesday.
I've got a break at 11:00 every day.

- 2 Check the meaning of the words in blue and choose the correct words. Then write sentences about your school.
- The music room / exercise is always cold.
 - Miss Atkins is our new English notebook / teacher.
 - Geography exams / rooms are always difficult.
 - I haven't got French teacher / homework today.
 - It's on page 36 of the maths book / class.
 - Your history notes / timetables are very neat.

	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY
09:45	Maths	Biology	History
10:30		Geography
11:00	Break	Break	Break
11:45	Art	Literature	Languages
12:30	Physics		Physics